BLUE RIBBON COMMISSION ON CHILD PROTECTION

On June 25, the Board approved the creation of the Blue Ribbon Commission on Child Protection, which is to be comprised of two members appointed by each Supervisor.

Dickran M. Tevrizian, Jr. served as a judge on the Los Angeles Municipal Court from 1972 to 1978, and on the California Superior Court in Los Angeles from 1978 to 1982. In 1985, Tevrizian was nominated by President Ronald Reagan to the United States District Court for the Central District of California. He retired from the bench in 2007 and was most recently Supervisor Antonovich's appointee to the County Commission on Jail Violence.

In over 26 years with the Special Victims Bureau, Sergeant Dan Scott has supervised over 4000 criminal investigations in child abuse, rape and sexual assault including the "Miramonte" teacher abuse case. One of the nation's leading experts in child abuse, he has conducted over 1500 criminal investigations in which he has interviewed over 1800 child and adult victims and over 1500 suspects.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE that the Board of Supervisors appoint as of July 1, 2013, Retired Federal Judge Dickran M. Tevrizian and Dan Scott to serve as representatives of the Fifth Supervisorial District on the newly-created Blue Ribbon Commission on Child Protection.
